The Monroeville Alumni Display Committee

The purpose of this book is to preserve the history of the Monroe Township Schools as researched by the Committee. The book takes us back to the beginning of the first school in this township and travels through the years to the present elementary school located on the corner of Monroe and Elm Streets as were the two preceding schools.

This book developed after the successful project of building a display case and installing a photo panel display in 2004 at the Monroeville Elementary School. After collecting memorabilia for this display, the decision was made to document some of this information into a book form.

Every effort has been made by the Committee to provide factual and accurate information about our school system. Many sources were used including interviews with many MHS graduates as well as collecting photos from them and family members, researching through old Monroeville Breeze newspapers, MHS yearbooks, studying plat maps, using old trustee records, etc. Many thanks goes out to all those who have looked in their attics and closets to contribute to this project.

It is our hope that each person who reads this book will learn something new about the history of Monroe Township Schools and keep their memories of school days alive.

The Monroeville Alumni Display Committee
dedicates this book to
Mr. James C. Hunt,
Principal of the Monroeville Elementary School,
for providing a space in this school to help preserve the history of the Monroe Township Schools and for his dedication as an educator in our school system.
To him, we owe our most sincere gratitude.

DISTRICT NO. 3 (East Liberty School) Section 30

The brick schoolhouse was located on the northwest corner of Barkley Road and Liberty Road (State Road 101), but the first school (a log structure) was built in 1843 on the Joseph Rabbit property in Section 32. This information was gathered from an article written by H. M. Clem published in the Monroeville Breeze on September 19, 1901, early township plat maps, and the 150 Years at East Liberty Book.

The earliest written account shows Francis Porter being elected as School Director on October 17, 1859. John Friedline sold land to the township for $40.00 on October 5, 1872 for the building of a wood frame school on this location. Then on November 3, 1872, C. Miller was elected the new School Director. The school was finally built on December 18, 1876. George P. Schlemmer was paid $62.88 on June 7, 1877 for building a fence for this school. Thomas Kain and Company was paid $7.00 for blackboard on November 10, 1879.

Some of the teachers at District No. 3 were: William McMillen - 1866-67; Stephen Morton - 1868; Isabelle Kerr - 1868; Sarah A. Miller - 1869; J. W. Edwards - 1870; Della Smith - 1870-71; V. L. Shaffer - 1871-72; John Stokes - 1872; William J. Peckham - 1873; A. S. Robinson - 1874-76; Elmira J. Whipkey - 1877; V. L. Shaffer - 1878; Ella Purman - 1879; Luella Miller - 1879; E. L. Edwards - 1879 and Lesa Miller - 1879. Director of the school in 1880 was William B. Rabbit. Pearl Stephenson taught at this school 1898.

Those who repaired the schoolhouse during the years 1866-1880 were: J. Anderson, J. Burger, John Anderson, Silas C. Marts, and C. Miller. Those providing wood for the stove were: P. Whipkey, L. Wormcastle, S. Graham, Emmanuel Friedline, Baxter Williams, J. S. Anderson, and Samuel Sheehan.

Furniture for the schoolhouse was purchased in 1880 at the cost of $102.00 from Hadley Brothers and Kain.

"The contract was let for the East Liberty brick school to Colyer and May on July 26, 1888. It was abandoned about 1927 and sold to the East Liberty Ladies Aid in March 1930 for $150.00, then torn down in 1942. Prior to the brick building, there was a frame school at East Liberty near the church. Most of these were abandoned about 1910 for brick buildings.

In the early days when a school house was desired by a community, it could be obtained only by consent of a majority of the legal voters in that district. If the school was to be had, the voters assembled, chopped, hauled and hewed the material and erected the building. A man might give money instead of labor; wages were .37 1/2 cents per day. When the building was completed, the people met to determine the teacher's salary. Usually the teacher "boarded around" among the scholars. Before there was any school houses, residences or cabins were used. Some of the cabins had only dirt floors. On this account, only summer and fall terms were held. Another article stated classes were held only during the winter as the children were needed to work in the fields in summer.

The school houses were built of hewn logs and had puncheon floors. This was a floor made of slabs hewn from logs and laid across the stringers, beams or soil. Many buildings also had a huge clay chimney and fireplace. The clapboard door swung on wooden hinges. The windows were made of greased paper. The ventilation was unquestionably good, as lots of fresh air was introduced through cracks in the walls. The inner walls had wooden pegs for coats and shelves for dinner pails. The seats had no backs and were merely rough hewn benches facing the windows on either side. The boys sat on one side of the room and the girls on the other. Later, the fireplace gave way to the box stove, which was long enough to burn large and long sticks of wood. In the winter, the pupils near the stoves changed seats with those farther away when they became too warm. The students studied aloud. Very few text books were used in the early days. Each pupil might bring what he had. The New Testament was the most popular book and was frequently used for reading and spelling. In spite of all the disadvantages, education gained its foothold. The early settlers were ambitious and eager to learn. They would go a great distance to attend a singin' or spellin' school. Most log schools were abandoned about 1860 to frame schools."

My Dear Parent

THIS MOMENT I'M WRITING TO YOU
BY THE FIRST OF MAY AND HOPE YOU'LL BE A LITTLE IN THE MIND WITH PARTIALITY

AND SET AS IN ITS LEAFY BUDS
YOUR THOUGHTS OF ME I KNOW
AND ALL THE CARE AND TIME I TAKE
TO BE A GOOD LADDER TO

AND WHEN YOU HAVE TO GO TO
THE FAMILY I KNOW YOU
AND WITH YOUR OWN HANDS
I'M A LITTLE MORE

AND NOW I'M A LITTLE MORE
AT THE END OF THE DAY
AND I'M A LITTLE MORE
AND I'M A LITTLE MORE

Sincerely

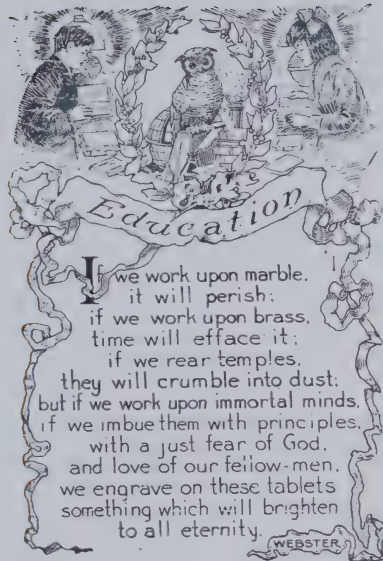

Your son

Life is what we make it

Let's oftener talk of noble deeds
And rarer of the bad ones,
And sing about our happy days,
And not about the sad ones,
We were not made to fret and sigh,
And when grief sleeps to wake it,
Bright happiness is standing by—
This life is what we make it.

Let's find the sunny side of men,
Or be believers in it,
A light there is in any soul
That takes the pains to win it,
Oh! there's a slumbering good in all,
And we perchance may wake it,
Our hands contain the magic wand,
This life is what we make it.

Then here's to those whose loving hearts
Shed light and joy about them,
Thanks be to them for countless gains
We ne'er had known without them,
Oh! this should be a happy world
To all who may partake it,
The fault's our own if it is not—
This life is what we make it

If we work upon marble,
it will perish;
if we work upon brass,
time will efface it;
if we rear temples,
they will crumble into dust;
but if we work upon immortal minds,
if we imbue them with principles,
with a just fear of God,
and love of our fellow-men,
we engrave on these tablets
something which will brighten to all eternity.

WEBSTER

A traveler through a dusty road
Strewed acorns on the lea,
And one took root, and sprouted up,
And grew into a tree.
Love sought its shade at evening time
To breathe its early vows;
And Age was pleased, at heat of noon,
To bask beneath its boughs;
The dormouse loved its dangling twigs,
The birds sweet music bore;
It stood a glory in its place,
A blessing evermore.

The night has a thousand eyes,
And the day but one;
Yet the light of the bright world dies
With the setting sun.

The mind has a thousand eyes,
And the heart but one;
Yet the sight of a whole life dies
When love is done.
